BEACON HELPS GIVE SPECIAL DOG A SECOND LIFE

Beacon staffer Martha Blumel found a cute, cuddly cocker spaniel wandering the streets of West Palm Beach. Martha and her daughter, Megan, cared for the dog and tried to find his owners. When the owners could not be located, Martha asked The Beacon publisher to run a photo of the dog Megan had named Jake.

The photo was seen by the Taylor family in Jupiter. They contacted Martha and they adopted Jake. Jake joined two other dogs and two cats in the Taylor household.

Since then, Jake has participated in many training classes and is now a Therapy Dog, registered with the Delta Society and Therapy Dog, Inc. He is also an American Kennel Club Canine Good Citizen. Jake works through the State Attorney's Office in West Palm Beach helping children who have been witnesses or victims of crime. When he is not working or playing with his friend, Chloe, a cocker spaniel/golden retriever mix, he enjoys ice cream and running.

Jake is proof that you don't have to be a pure bred dog to be a winner, and that rescued dogs are wonderful companions.

Thanks to The Beacon, Jake has a second life. ☺

Jake, the wonder dog (right), and his friend Chloe contemplate an ice cream cone, their favorite snack.
